

How does a school make AYP?

Specific groups attending a school are required to achieve Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP).

The groups with 'Yes' below are required to make AYP if they have at least 25 students. A school does not make AYP if any of these groups fail to perform at the proficient level on the designated test.

Group	Required to Make AYP
Asian/Pacific Islanders	Yes
Black, non-Hispanic	Yes
Hispanic	Yes
American Indian/Alaskan Native	Yes
White, non-Hispanic	Yes
Females	No
Males	No
Disabled	Yes
Limited or Not English Proficient	Yes
Economically Disadvantaged	Yes
Migrant	No

The test used in the District to determine AYP:

In 2006, the District adopted the DC Comprehensive Assessment System (DC-CAS), a nationally normed test. Prior to 2006, the Stanford Achievement Test (SAT9) was used.

A school achieves Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) if:

All groups required to make AYP 1) reach or exceed the 95% tested target, 2) achieve the proficiency targets shown in the table below and 3) the school maintains a 90% attendance record, or, in the case of senior high schools, maintains a graduation rate of 75% or better.

Year	School Level	Reading Proficiency Target	Math Proficiency Target
2008	Elementary	60.53%	55.21%
	Secondary	57.69%	55.41%
2007	Elementary	47.37%	40.28%
	Secondary	43.58%	40.55%
2006	Elementary	47.37%	40.28%

2004	Elementary	41.92%	48.67%
	Secondary	28.08%	33.17%
2003	Elementary	30.30%	38.40%
	Secondary	13.70%	19.80%
2002	Elementary	30.30%	38.40%
	Secondary	13.70%	19.80%

A school can make AYP through meeting requirements of Safe Harbor.

A school can make Safe Harbor, and AYP, if the percent not proficient the previous year is reduced by at least 10%. For example, if a school had 10 percent proficient (i.e., 90% not proficient) in SY2003 they would need at least 19 percent (10% of 90 added to the 10 percent from SY2003) proficient in SY2004 to make Safe Harbor.

A school is placed in "In Need of Improvement" status if:

at least one of its groups fail to make AYP in a category (i.e., Reading, Math, Attendance, or Graduation Rate) for two (2) consecutive years. The school is identified as "In Need of Improvement, Year 1." If it fails in a different category each year the school has not met this criterion to be identified.

The school can stop being in improvement status if:

The school makes AYP in the problem category (i.e., Reading, Math, Attendance, Graduation) for two consecutive years.

A school is placed in corrective action if it fails to make AYP for four consecutive years.
A school is placed in restructuring if it fails to make AYP for five consecutive years.
